THE MOUNT

We, The Class Of 1992 Dedicate The Mount To

Mr. Tom Krantz

Mr. Krantz, even though circumstances made it impossible for you to share our senior year with us, we feel this dedication is proper. We miss your face in the halls, your slide shows, and the holy wars you used to wage. Thanks for the memories. We miss you.

Dear Members of the Class of 1992:

Commencement day is here!

Your life after these brief years of high school is about to begin...

As you leave our Academy school community I urge you to remember the relationships made and enriched here. Keep your faith and trust in God. This is a priceless gift. Treasure it. God will be with you in all of the circumstances of your life. He loves you because He is good and always has your best interest in mind.

Treasure your friends, be true to your self, your values, your beliefs. Strive for excellence in all of your undertakings as you continue to grow "in wisdom, age, and grace." Seek championship performance in reaching out to our sisters and brothers of the world in their many needs.

As the years pass, it is my hope that you will come to treasure even more the opportunities and challenges which were yours because of the Mt. St. Joseph Academy community experience. Always be grateful for those who made M.S.J. possible for you. Take the time from this day forward to help, through the investment of your time, talent and tax deductible gifts, to assure that the Academy experience will always be available for those who want it. We will remind you and keep in touch through the Newsletter.

Now that you will be enrolled among the prestigious M.S.J. alumni, I ask that you walk even taller. You are a living report card of the love, sacrifice, efforts and dreams of your parents, your relatives, teachers, friends and surely the M.S.J. Community.

You will remain in my prayer and in my heart. At the Academy we remember you in prayer each Thursday with all of our alumni. If you have special needs for prayer let me know and I will place them before God.

May your heart be strong, your courage great and your humility such that your hands can always reach out to give and to accept as needed.

Love and prayer,

We, The Class Of 1992, Leave . . .

MATT A. My taste in music to anyone who will enjoy it and all my smokes to Robin Pearson, 'cause I owe her. DENISE B. The extinction of buffaloes to Chrissy B. and to Autumn, the hope of finding her long lost Buddy. MATT B. My assertiveness to actually call "someone" so I will not be a lonely guy on the weekends to Bix because, you know, they're lonely too! RYAN B. My assertiveness to actually call "someone" so I won't be a lonely guy on the weekends to Matty because, you know, they are lonely too! TIM B. The red luxury bug to Matt Curran so he can continue his journey after the luxury boat fails him. DILLON B. My work boots to anyone who thinks they can walk these halls without getting yelled at for making too much noise. KATIE B. The Festiva to the football players and my bizarre ability to score 15 points in the first quarter of basketball games and end up with 15 — to no one! After all, who would want it? Well, maybe someone would. (I'm so confused!) SARAH B. My uncanny ability to be the "butt" of the joke. KEITH C. The luxury boat and a full tank of gas to Matt Curran in the hopes that he will drive it as far away from Rutland as it will take him. SCOTT C. The ability to magnetize to any loser who can't get a chick. ERICA C. To Keith Wortman, my cousin, my ability to behave & my ability to pay library fees. I leave Justin Martell my keen ability to sit & watch everyone else play tennis & come when someone calls. MELISSA C. To Kerry Branon the ability to have fun "innocently" and not get caught. MELINDA D. My half of the brain to anyone who feels they need it. COLLEEN D. My indecisiveness to anyone who can decide if he/she wants to deal with the stress that goes along with it. TARA D. My ability to debate to anyone who needs it and my ability to have a long relationship to Susan Lloyd. CURT E. The Gut to Peter R. and Chris W. and DUKE to Danny C. JEREMY F. My friendliness and love of freshmen to Willie McGrath and Ryan Gagen. HOLLY F. A comb to Kerry. CARYN G. The clazones from Pizza Pasta Spot to Rob-in in hopes that she'll one day return for Tanya and me. LARRY H. My booming tee shots to Bob Carrara and short shorts to the MSJ men's basketball team. AMY H. To Lesley, #15, and to Robin Pearson, rocks, in case we need Melissa McLeod. DANELLE H. To Brandi Vitagliano, Tarzan and Jungle Boy so that the legend lives on and a front seat at Burger King. I leave Amanda Johnson the ability to stay awake and watch Saturday Night Live because I know she needs it. GREG H. To Willie McGrath a flashlight and directions to my house in case he ever needs to stay out past his curfew. TANYA H. To Brandi, the Dynasty tapes so Crystal and Alexis can live on. RICHARD I. Pre-game workouts to future Legion of Doom members. JENN I. To Leah Parento the legend of the Leslie Spit Trees and all the sags that go with it! ROB K. Originality & the ability to have a good time to all those who find themselves lame & pathetic. JONATHAN K. To Dave W., my incredible soccer skill and to Leah P., the ability to always find a good parking spot. KEITH K. My ability to get my grades raised with teacher consent to Nate Seitz and my power gluteus to Ryan Gagen in case he needs a spare. ERIN L. Luck to all the family members I know or don't know (Nina!) that pass through MSJ! DANA M. To Chris P., the ability to carry on obnoxiously without me there to encourage him. JOYNELL M. To Margret A. Hobel, my ability to back into a parking spot in hopes she will use it one day. MARK M. The reunions to those few lucky enough to take part in them. Many memories and thanks to the Malibu for its reliability and persistence in always getting us safely to our destination. MICHAEL M. My everlasting darkness to all those women striving for the perfect tan. MARIA N. I leave "Nads." JENNA N. My spleen to Amy Welch. GREG O. To Kelly Dority, my Bugle Boy jeans; to anyone who will take him, my brother Scott, & my ability to kick butt on the Scholars Bowl Team to Ryan Gagen. MIKE O. To Brandi, my 1990 edition of Sports Illustrated featuring Burt Grossman because I'm too lazy to get rid of it myself. Also, to Aaron Greene, my killer instinct, even though he doesn't need it. SCOTT O. To Willie, my ability to get money off the underclassmen girls; to Pete, my size. BROOKE P. All the memories of the word "face-tious" to Leah Parento. JEREMY P. To Tom V., John V., Doug F., and Justin M., my ability to play tennis, and to Nate S., my good looks in hopes that he finds true love. COLLETTE R. The other half of the brain to anyone who is dumb enough to take it. To Michelle T., my cheering ability, and to Courtney G., my ability to keep quiet. STEPHEN R. Ron's practice jersey to Jason Garuso in hopes that he will wear it with pride. SARA R. To Misty & Margaret, the hope that someday our softball team will win more than two games. MAUREEN S. All the unwanted pictures of Keith K. that didn't make the yearbook to anyone who really wants them! KRISTEN S. My love of coffee to Felicia and my ability to drive to Margaret A., so they can carry on the traditions. TODD S. To Doug Falk, an ounce of common sense in hope that someday he will use it. BRIAN S. The guilt to Melissa M. of it being "her fault," and my persistence in never getting caught to anyone lucky enough to stumble onto it. CRAIG S. My love for hot and humid football practices to John A. who can't wait for the 1992 season to start! CAROLINE T. To Heather Garrow, the ability to be absent from school and get away with it, in the hope that she'll have as much fun as I did. DOUG W. My truck to anyone who deserves to drive one powerful Ford. TREVOR W. My Cherokee to Jon Pockette in the hopes that he can fix it; also half of DUKE to Whale Blubber so he can find someone deserving to take it over.

SENIORS

IN THE YEAR 2002 . . .

MATT A. I will still be watching flicks with "Da Boyz," still making football trips, and still telling myself "I've really got a chance this time." DENISE B. I will be married with a great job in L.A., still hanging around with Joynel, and still trying to find my true identity. MATT B. I will be alive and well, taking Ryan to where he'll be in 2003. RYAN B. I will be thinking of where I am going to be in 2003 and how I am going to get there; I know someone will take me because God don't like people like me. TIM B. I will be competing in the professional ping-pong championship, better known as the PPP, with teammates Ryan B., and Matt B. DILLON B. I will be hopefully in Maine or Montana doing what I've always wanted to as a game warden. SARAH B. I will still be hysterically laughing in the card aisle, driving Maria crazy. KEITH C. I will be playing in the NFL for the never-say-die New England Patriots, along with fellow teammates Rob K., Rich L., and Scott C., better known to the opposing teams as the Legion of Doom. SCOTT C. I will have tackled the Mr. Olympia title four times. ERICA C. I will be singing the national anthem for MSJ. MELISSA C. I will be living in the streets of Germany, playing my saxophone, trying to make something of myself. MELINDA D. I will be married to Mike, still answering people's questions about our age difference. COLLEEN D. I will still be throwing surprise parties! TARA D. I will be trying to explain the "joke" to Brooke. CURT E. I will be the senior partner in the law firm somewhere in the U.S. living it up. JEREMY F. I will be hosting BASS Masters with cameo appearances with well-known stars. AMY F. I will be doing everybody's job that nobody is doing because everybody thought anybody could have done it. HOLLY F. I will be living happily ever after. CARYN G. I will be baking Betty Crocker with Dana and Tanya until we're 65 years old. LARRY H. I will be a financial advisor to all my friends (still). AMY H. I will still be waiting to reach 5 feet. DANIELLE H. I will be wondering what I am going to write for the class prophecy. GREG H. I will be starting second doubles on the MSJ tennis team. MELANIE H. I will be a motorcycle momma; then again I could be wrong; I could be jumping off cliffs with Maureen. TANYA H. I will still be calling Brian "Honey" and enjoying Dana and Caryn's Betty Crocker recipes. RICHARD I. I will be continuing my dominance over the opposite sex. JENN I. I will be living in Africa with the Kisumu tribe and will be sending monthly shipments of Betty Crocker goods to my friends up North. ROB K. I will co-direct and produce and star in the long-awaited sequel to "Ghost Dad" with "Da Boyz." JON K. I will still be doing the Jon-man. TOBIN K. I will be the chaplain at MSJ. KEITH K. I will be the king of cartoons on the all-new Pee-Wee's Playhouse. BETH L. I will still be without a drivers license. ERIN L. I will own my own salon . . . NOT in Rutland, Vermont! DANA M. I will still be baking Betty Crocker with Caryn & Tanya until we're 65 years old and still running out of gas. JOYNEL M. I will be manager of Grand Union, still collecting yellow register tapes for school. MARK M. I will be the official Ikiff-geytrsch of the U.S. MICHAEL M. I will be hosting my own show called "Wok along with Mike" on Oriental cooking. MARIA N. I will be taking trips to nowhere in "Maureen's taxi." JENNA N. I will be still listening to Caroline's stories. GREG O. I will be the winner of the Nipsy Russell look-alike contest and living comfortably in his mansion in Belair. MIKE O. I hope to have taken over Mike Blair's position as WWF reporter for WSYB. SCOTT O. I will be out of this state and in Saudi Arabia living in my own sand castle. BROOKE P. I will still be wondering what the "joke" was about. GABRIELA P. I will be a chef and have four children and a wonderful husband. I will have a big, big house and travel around the world with my family, but never again back to Vermont. JEREMY P. I intend to have a happy family, lots of money, my own business, and hire Jeremy Pratico as my vice-president. COLLETTE R. I'll still be trying to convince people I'm older than fourteen. STEPHEN R. I will be in California, a prophet on the burning shore, listening to "Rubber Biscuit" by the Blues Brothers, and waiting for Richie to send me my grey shorts. SARA R. I will still be playing summer softball with Dubie and still trying to find the cheapest places to eat after our games. MAUREEN S. I will still be looking for those guys in the grey Jetta with the video camera with Maria, Melanie, & Sarah. KRISTEN S. I'll be sleeping. BRIAN S. I will have written a new law stating that there should be more than one President, actually five, and that will come true for "Da Boyz." CRAIG S. I will have won 25 million in the Tri-State Megabucks, but unfortunately putting it towards new lawn equipment broken during my summer job! CAROLINE T. I will still be talking my way out of any tickets, still permanently confused, and still full of stories. DOUG W. I will be married, have two kids, and earning $70,000 a year working on diesels. TREVOR W. I will be a multi-million dollar entrepreneur in Miami while still trying to complete my high school English essays.

MELINDA R. DAWLEY

Project help freshman year, McDonalds; "What's that?" Collette, what's a blow pop? Whoo, whoo, what comes next? Kristen, are you feeling a little glucosy today? Collette and Erin, who would want to be part of that group? November 90, the chainsaw massacre; "Who's screaming?" Thank you, Matt C. You've been a great friend!! I'll never forget all the good times! Mike, thanks for everything; I love you! Mom, Dad, and Michael, you're the best; I love you! Drama 1; Intract 4; Yrbk 4.

Life is but a shadow, a shadow which leaps joyfully across the grass and loses itself in the sunset. Things will change but my memories will remain the same: April in Spain; sword fights on the roof; Friendly's sundaes. Can I have a bowl of cherries on this? Beware: dangerous turn ahead! Sarah, we are not in Essex anymore! Physics! It has been fun but now it is done.

"What do we do next?" said Pooh. "We are all going on an Expedition," said Christopher Robin. "Going on an Exposition?" said Pooh eagerly. "I don't think I've ever been on one of those. Where are we going to on this Exposition?" "We're going to discover the North Pole." "Oh!" said Pooh. "What is the North Pole?" he asked. "It's just a thing you discover," said Christopher Robin carelessly, not being quite sure himself. - A.A. The sunlight on the garden
Hardens and grows cold,
We cannot cage the minute
Within its nets of gold . . .
Our freedom as free lances
Advances towards its end;
The earth compels, upon it
Sonnets and Birds
descend;
And soon, my friend,
We shall have no time for dances.
The sky was good for flying
Defying the church bells

And not expecting pardon,
Hardened in heart anew,
But glad to have sat under
Thunder and rain with you,
And grateful too
For sunlight in the garden.

Quality starts with our people . . .

Every day, thousands of pilots around the world depend on our people and their attention to the aircraft engines they work to produce.

It's the people who work at Rutland's GE who keep us on top. Their dedication, pride, and teamwork combine to make us the premier manufacturers of precision airfoils for military and commercial aircraft engines in the world.
